

Heber Doctor Succumbs To Heart Ill-

Special to The Tribune

HEBER—Dr. Karl O. Nielson, 51, prominent physician and surgeon, died Saturday at 4:35 p.m. in his office of a heart ailment.

He was born Dec. 4, 1904 in Washington, D.C., while his father was studying medicine at George Washington University. He was the son of Alexander John and Andrea Jesson Nielson.

He was reared at Ephraim.

On March 14, 1928 he married Florence Tuttle, in the Salt Lake Temple, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Dr. Nielson taught school for two years at Spring Glen, Carbon County, before entering Rush Medical School in Chicago. He was graduated in 1933.

He served his internship in Salt Lake General Hospital. Dr. Nielson came to Heber 20 years ago, entering partnership with Dr. T. A. Dannenberg as owners and operators of the Heber Hospital.

At the time of his death he was associated with Drs. Willard Draper and Raymond Green in the same hospital.

Dr. Nielson was widely known throughout Wasatch and neighboring counties.

HE WAS active in civic affairs. At the time of his death he was a member and past president of the Heber Lions Club, Wasatch-Summit Knife and Fork Club, Wasatch Chamber of Commerce. He served on the Wasatch Selective Service Board and was president of Wasatch Mutual Aid Insurance Co.

Surviving are his widow, a daughter, Mrs. Glen I. (Carroll Lee) Hicken, Salt Lake City; Douglas and Richard Nielson, Heber; three grandchildren, his mother, Mrs. A. J. Nielson, Salt Lake City; two brothers and a sister, Dr. K. A. Nielson, Los Angeles and Dr. Paul E. Nielson, Chicago, and Mrs. Ruth N. Birrer, Rupert, Idaho.

Funeral services will be announced by Olpin Mortuary, Heber.

Heber Succu To He

Special to

HEBER—Dr. Karl O. Nielson, 51, prominent physician and surgeon, died Saturday at 4:35 p.m. in his office of a heart ailment.

He was born Dec. 4, 1904 in Washington, D.C., while his father was studying medicine at George Washington University. He was the son of Alexander John and Andrea Jesson Nielson.

He was reared at Ephraim.

On March 14, 1928 he married Florence Tuttle, in the Salt Lake Temple, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Dr. Nielson taught school for two years at Spring Glen, Carbon County, before entering Rush Medical School in Chicago. He was graduated in 1933.

He served his internship in Salt Lake General Hospital. Dr. Nielson came to Heber 20 years ago, entering partnership with Dr. T. A. Dannenberg as owners and operators of the Heber Hospital.

At the time of his death he was associated with Drs. Willard Draper and Raymond Green in the same hospital.

Dr. Nielson was widely known throughout Wasatch and neighboring counties.

HE WAS active in civic affairs. At the time of his death he was a member and past president of the Heber Lions Club, Wasatch-Summit Knife and Fork Club, Wasatch Chamber of Commerce. He served on the Wasatch Selective Service Board and was president of Wasatch Mutual Aid Insurance Co.

Surviving are his widow, a daughter, Mrs. Glen I. (Carroll Lee) Hicken, Salt Lake City; Douglas and Richard Nielson, Heber; three grandchildren, his mother, Mrs. A. J. Nielson, Salt Lake City; two brothers and a sister, Dr. K. A. Nielson, Los Angeles and Dr. Paul E. Nielson, Chicago, and Mrs. Ruth N. Birrer, Rupert, Idaho.

Funeral services will be announced by Olpin Mortuary, Heber.